Topic: Dixie Swim Club Posted: 12/08/11 at 8:27am: I know a lot of you have already done Dixie Swim Club. I will be directing it very soon. What I am interested in is hearing any interesting ideas you have or you used in the scene changes. I don't want the audience just sitting in the dark as the girls change costumes and in some cases make-up.

The script by Jones, Hope, and Wooten doesn't linger too long on conflict; instead it opts to err on the side of humor and sentimentality. This is somewhat disappointing at times as it would have been more fulfilling theater if the characters who open up not only about their problems at home but their problems with each other actually developed these conflicts.
