The 2020 movie The Witches was supposed to be a fun readaptation from the 1983 novel of the same name by Roald Dahl. But instead of being fun, it insults people with visible disabilities -- in this case, people who happen to have limb differences. Now witches have usually had a bad rap in theatrical productions, seen as both powerful and ugly female creatures of the night who prey on children ...

Witches know. Witches have books to consult to develop their craft. Those who don't practice witch craft are very dangerous. They don't know what they are doing and will swallow. just about anything, even pills full of white magic, magical thinking, and mistakes. Witch craft runs in my blood and I can do nothing to change it.
